

FOREVER
INTO GLASS

BY LANGHAM GLASS
HANDMADE IN ENGLAND

Forever into Glass

Remember a loved one or pet by incorporating a small amount of cremated ash into our handmade glass.

Langham Glass is delighted to introduce our new range "Forever into Glass" consisting of Glass Paperweights, Bowls and Jewellery.

This is a service we have carried out for years but we have now decided to promote this service further. Each piece is handmade by our team of glassmakers in Norfolk. Using just a small amount of cremated ash, we can incorporate this into one of our memorial designs to create a lasting memory.

How "Forever into Glass" is created.

All we require is a small amount of ash to create your beautiful memorial piece. Once we have received your ashes, they are treated with the utmost respect and care. Each piece is made privately in our factory. The ashes are mixed with your chosen colour and the molten glass is then layered together encapsulating the ashes within the glass. The pieces are then sculpted or blown depending on your choice of item.

You can book a private viewing of your "Forever into Glass" being made for an additional £30.00 where one of our craftsmen will talk you through the whole process.

Each piece is hand finished in our finishing room. The glass memorial piece is signed by the designer and is accompanied with a certificate of authenticity.

The Jewellery memorial items are all made of Sterling silver and hallmarked. Each piece is gift boxed carefully ready for collection or postage. Due to the nature of each bespoke piece we advise that the whole process may take up to 6 weeks.

Due to the handcrafted nature of Forever into Glass, items may differ slightly from the images shown. All sizes are approximate.
